Holiday Open House

On December 3, the Crescent Hill Community Council will be staging its annual Holiday Open House at the Peterson Dumesnil House at 301 South Peterson Avenue. As usual, we'll be offering free holiday entertainment and refreshments, and an opportunity to enjoy them in a beautifully decorated historic home. This is the neighborhood's party, and you're invited. Next month's newsletter will have more information, but mark your calendar now!!

Fall Food Drive Under Way

Dare to Care's annual Fall Food Drive is under way. The drive collects non perishable food to feed the hungry in the Louisville area. Some of the food collected in the drive is distributed to Crescent Hill and Clifton residents through the United Crescent Hill Ministries' food distribution center at 1860 Frankfort Avenue. The UCHM center distributed food to 2,778 neighborhood people last year. Throughout the Louisville area, Dare to Care helped feed over 95,000 people.

You can take part in the food drive by placing non perishables in bins at area grocery stores. Food will also be collected by area Boy Scouts, who will deliver bags to residences on November 9 and pick up the filled bags on November 16. Children in the Jefferson County Public Schools will also be contributing, by donating food at their schools from November 11 to November 22.

Fall Bazaar & Bake Sale

Crescent Hill United Methodist Church will hold its annual fall bazaar on Saturday, November 9th, from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm.

Both a trash & treasure sale, and bake sale, featuring home-made goodies, will be featured. Proceeds from the sale go toward mission activities in the church.

Pancake Day - November 9th

The 34th Pancake Day will again be the big fund raiser for Troop 1 and Pack 1 Scouts. The hours are from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. at Crescent Hill United Methodist Church.

How many people have been served when the following items were used? 2,5000 lbs. of flour, 4,000 lbs of sausage and bacon, 23,000 fresh eggs. Ask Charlie Eury. He attended the first Pancake Day in 1958 and has made each of them since that time. He will tell you how many have eaten the best "Boy Scout Pancakes" available! Move over, McDonalds! For further information please call Steve Thomas, Scoutmaster Troop 1 897-7717, Mike Chittum, Cubmaster, Pack 1 894-8075.
